Stay in the know – Be in touch with local and state representatives about gathering limits and plans for re-openings. BE THE EXPERTS so that you can guide your clients!

Start Outreach now – The catering market is going to be extremely competitive when it's completely open. Make sure that you are keeping in touch with your clients and providing solutions for their event needs – both now and later this year.

Have a Plan – For the re-onboarding of employees, and for potentially needing to recruit new hires. Be prepared that this may happen suddenly!
